Oakville Ruritan Meeting Highlights

At the regular meeting on Friday, March 20, the Oakville Ruritan Club was the recipient of a new flag from the Woodmen of the World. Shown above presenting the flag to the club president, Abner Scruggs (left) is R. B. Moore, representative of the W. O. W. (right). The presentation of flags to local organizations is one of the on-going projects of W. O. W. The program for the meeting consisted of a very interesting and informative talk by Earl Smith, Superintendent of Appomattox County Schools. Mr. Smith, pictured below, discussed national, state, and local situations affecting education.
